An Opium Den Discovered in Brooklyn.

CHINESE INVADE THE EAST.

Interesting Racing Events at Different Points—Decision Against the Oregon R. R. Co.

(Special to the Herald by the Associated Press) New York, May 28.—A little girl, 13 years old, named Maggie Westbridge, was discovered a few days ago in a Chinese laundry and opium joint in Brooklyn. Her father is dead and her mother lives with a Chinaman. The place is described by the police as an opium joint of the vilest character. A number of young girls are being induced to go there and smoke. The fatal first step which leads to ruin, Maggie said yesterday that there were more girls who frequented the place than men. They are all American girls. Maggie indignantly denied that her mother was one of the opium smokers, and said that she never touched the drug herself. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children will take care of the girl.

THE PRELIER CASE.

Some Testimony as to the Effect of Chloroform.

St. Louis, May 28.—The proceedings in the Maxwell murder case were rather tame this morning in comparison with those of the previous days. The time being occupied with expert medical testimony. Louis Bauer, Dean of the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons and Demonstrator of Surgery, testified for the defense that the probability of death, resulting from the use of chloroform was very great even when administered by skilled physicians. That the same amount given to a weak man would equal physical strength might not even render one of them unconscious, while it might instantly kill the other. That the best chloroform ought to be used in all cases and it ought to be chemically analyzed before used. Young and experienced physicians were always more careful in its use than those of mature years and long practice. The testimony of Dr. Bauer consumed the remainder of the session. After recess the depositions taken in St. Louis, leading to show that the defendant was living there before a good character, were read. It is expected that the witnesses for the prosecution in rebuttal will be examined to-morrow.

AN OPERATOR'S ERROR.

How President Cleveland's Engagement Looked Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—The Examiner's Washington special says: A telegraph operator in this city was the first person outside of the Cleveland and Polk families to discover the fact of the President's engagement. This knowledge, however, proved unfortunate for him and resulted ultimately in the loss of his situation. On the night preceding Miss Folsom's departure for Europe, a telegram written by the President was handed in at the telegraph office. It was addressed to Miss Folsom. The operator who sent the dispatch has a main and sub-station. He made a copy of the original dispatch which he filed with the others transmitted by him and carried the original to meet at the station to the right of the signature and place it among his other collections. Both his wife and his landlady were shown the dispatch. It contained statements of such a nature as to leave no doubt in their minds that a love affair, say the least, was on the tapis, and this secret each solemnly resolved to respect. In the course of time a disagreement occurred between the two ladies, which resulted finally in the operator and his wife seeking other quarters. The landlady is reported at the telegraph office and reported to the proper official the operator's connection with the stolen dispatch. The operator made no denial of the charges against him, but said he had intended no harm. He had, however, broken an inviolable rule of the company and he was given a week in which to resign, or he was looking for other employment.

THE HEATHEN CHINESE.

Some of His Dark Ways and Vain Tricks.

The Eastern press and sentimentalists utter a great deal of nonsense about the "little brown man" from Cathay. If intelligent people only saw them in their everyday life they would despise their view on this head very promptly. It is claimed that the Chinaman is industrious, moral and peaceable beyond the average of our own race. They are industrious to a remarkable degree. Their over-crowded and poverty-stricken conditions induce industry and frugality. The absence of the charity resulting from 1800 years of specifically Christian teaching and practice, and the numerous eleemosynary institutions outgrowing from these emphasize this necessity. While the Chinese is a "dog, hog or die," the other claims are utterly baseless as the fabric of a dream. Their morality is nil, as is also their sense of honor and respect for their elders. There are few views known to men more sublime of all that in good among men than the Chinese habit of gambling and opium smoking. The victim of either is the most object slave to a habit under the sun. The Chinese, almost universally, gamble to distraction and smoke opium to destruction. Their other vices, such as human sacrifice, are as common as the air. They are as common as the air. They are as common as the air. They are as common as the air.

In the report the committee says that the project is a practicable one and that the net annual revenue of the road will be in excess of the amount guaranteed by the act of Congress.

DENVER, May 28.—An Aspen special says: Gill and Lee Maloney, two railroad contractors of the firm of O'Brien and Maloney, were killed near the mouth of the Frye Pass, on the Midland road, this afternoon by the premature explosion of a blast they were putting into the side of the mountain. David Foley, another contractor, was seriously wounded. The blast did not explode as intended.

THE TAX CASES.

A Decision From the Supreme Court.

THE MONEY TO BE PAID OVER.

The Temptation to Visit the Sandwich Islands Removed From the Attorney-General.

(Special to the Herald by the Associated Press) SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—The Supreme Court today rendered a decision in the case of the county of San Mateo vs. State Treasurer Sullivan, and John Rooney vs. Attorney-General Marshall, involving the question of turning over to the State the delinquent railroad taxes now in the possession of the Attorney-General. The decision recites that the two cases had been considered together, and the amount involved in $800,000.00, of which $140,000.00 was received by the Attorney-General from the defendants in the actions by certain counties against certain railroad corporations for the recovery of delinquent taxes for the fiscal years 1880-81, 1881-82, 1882-83. The remaining $660,000.00 was received from defendants in certain actions instituted by the State against said corporations for delinquent taxes for the fiscal years 1883-84, 1884-85. The decision, after reviewing the history of the railroad tax litigation, recites: We have, therefore, the case of an attorney who has received certain moneys under judgments and orders recovered by him in actions brought by certain counties against certain railroad corporations for the recovery of delinquent taxes for the fiscal years 1880-81, 1881-82, 1882-83.

Mr. R. B. Rowe is the State Agent of the Herald.

Our friend Hon. P. D. Wigginton has started his American party at Fresno, with the accompaniment of a committee by the land and water interests, which latter the telegraph placed at one thousand. This by no means indicates the number of votes this versatile and eloquent gentleman, who is to be the new party's candidate for Governor, will poll at that place. A thousand votes within the matter and the clams of California will be a liberal allowance for the fledgling party, even if Mr. Montague R. Laverne could be induced to figure on the ticket for Lieutenant-Governor with Mr. Wigginton.

Gies, Mr. Gies's plan of offering a reward for the heads of the conspirators. Apaches seem to have shocked the tender sensibilities of the War Department, but it is meeting with the approval of the masses to an extraordinary degree. The people of Arizona and of the States and territories really interested in the Indian question believe that, for the first time in a decade or more, the aborigine has been taken charge of by a masterhand, who will make good Indians if he has to pay from $50 to $2,000 a head for them. Gen. Miles has been enabled to offer these rewards through the liberality of private citizens.

A determined fight is being made in Congress against oleomargarine. The dairy interests of the country are being seriously threatened by bull butter, which can be furnished for seven cents a pound, which is a natural compound and which, from the presence of decayed organic matter, is prejudicial to the health. The prodigious capital invested in dairies in the United States is being put to rest. For this purpose Congress can employ the revenue system and can tax oleomargarine out of existence. In addition, the several States ought to make it a penitentiary offense. The man who made the delicious yellow may butter of the dairies a thing of the past ought to be killed.

The result in the libel case of Wells vs. Bell shows for the thousandth time how very difficult is for a plaintiff to get a verdict in a newspaper to obtain a verdict. As a general thing, to maintain such actions is merely to throw away time and money. Undoubtedly the feeling underlying such verdicts is that it is a great deal better that a little innocent should be allowed to go free than that the liberty of the press should be curtailed. As Judge Fitzgerald said in his very eloquent made, and it has undergone as many changes as the fashions of a woman's dress. Beginning in feudal times as a protection of the great, and taking at first the shape of scandalum magnatum, it developed the ingenious aspect of the greater truth the greater the libel. In California it has been put into a sensible shape, and no publisher is held responsible for the libel of malice, makes his publication from a regard to the public good and cultivates a convenient acquaintance with the truth, need fear aught from the verdict of a jury. Even where these qualifications are wanting the average jury is only too apt to protect the defendant.

The university of the sympathy of the people of the United States in Ireland is one of the most significant signs of the times. This feeling, however, is by no means confined to the United States. The whole civilized world is to-day engaged in paying Gladstone and Parnell a tribute such as has been accorded to no two living statesmen in the memory of man. Sustained by such a flattering evidence of the appreciation of mankind, Mr. Gladstone can very well afford to view with equanimity the desertion of such men as Chamberlain. The conviction that Home Rule will finally be voted by the Commons is growing in the best informed circles in England. The great objection to the measure is that it will give to the people of Ireland any representation in the Imperial Parliament—has been removed, as Mr. Gladstone announces it to be his purpose to prepare for a continuance of such representation. That was indeed the weak part of Mr. Gladstone's scheme, as the House pointed out in its rejection. By it Ireland would have lost the powerful leverage through which she has hitherto been able to make herself felt in the affairs of Britain, and through which she is now able to compel England to accord her a fair measure of Home Rule.

The contest over the will of the late Gaston Oxnart promises to be an exceedingly interesting one. The deceased was supposed to be a bachelor; but, to the surprise of no one, he has taken upon himself the cold cement of the grave than no less than three women claim him as their husband. It is astonishing what ladies' men gentlemen have been led to do in the matter of wills. It is not to be expected to have been after the grave has closed upon them. Precisely how to avoid these little post mortem experiences it is not easy to see. Your average bachelor, like Oxnart, might employ a bailiff and assemble a crowd once a week, when, after the customary "eyes, eyes," he might solemnly announce that he was not then nor ever had been a married man, and dare any alleged ex sposa to come forward and make good a claim to the contrary. This would be strong presumptive proof that the good man was married up to that date, but then it would admit of easy rebuttal. He finds

HE MAKES A CONFESSION.
A Husband Hues His Wife for Failure to Provide—Abandoning Bankers.

(Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.)

HOLLISTER, May 28.—Deputy Sheriff Zambito, of this county, and Officer Birmingham, of San Juan, brought in one of the supposed perpetrators of the Soledad murder, he was found about thirty miles from the Canal farm in Fresno county. Sheriff Graves of Monterey is here awaiting the prisoner. The prisoner has not been identified, but is supposed to be the one known as Louis.

At first he denied knowing anything about the Soledad affair or the shooting of Sheriff Pommeroy, but he eventually succeeded in obtaining a full confession. He stated that his name was Louis Clark, he came here from the East a short time ago, and met the other man, known as John, in Santa Barbara county and being without money, was induced to join the latter in a scheme of outlawry. He admitted the shooting of the Englishman was done by John, but declared that most of it was done by John, who, he says, admitted to him that he was a notorious desperado and was wanted in numerous different states for crimes of robbery and murder. When captured Clark had no weapon, but an ordinary pocket knife, and stated he led the patrol during the fight at Watsonville. He was brought here today by Officer Birmingham and Zambito and was turned over to Sheriff Graves, of Salinas, who started him on his way to the State Prison, where he is in great fear that he will be mobbed.

It is certain that no lady would consent to remain there for any length of time if she had the choice of living in town. It is black, lowly, desolate and unromantic. When the wind blows it sweeps across the top of the hill with the force of a hurricane, and then one is constantly fond of scenery there is a view that is a great picture."

NEW YORK, May 28.—The World's Washington correspondent says of the President's real estate investment: "It is a fact quite well known that Mr. Cleveland could make a visit in advance of his marriage to 'Pretty Prospect' and would decline to go on with that ceremony until he had seen the place. It is certain that no lady would consent to remain there for any length of time if she had the choice of living in town. It is black, lowly, desolate and unromantic. When the wind blows it sweeps across the top of the hill with the force of a hurricane, and then one is constantly fond of scenery there is a view that is a great picture."

The Knights of Labor.
CLEVELAND, O., May 28.—The Knights of Labor held their annual convention here today. The Committee on Laws presented a report recommending that the General Executive Committee be increased from five to eleven members. After an hour's discussion the recommendation was adopted by ballot and served during the remainder of the year, which ends in July. Permanent headquarters will be opened in Philadelphia, and if necessary the Board will act throughout the year. A resolution was adopted giving the power to recall the commissions of all organizers.

Reward for Murderers.
SALINAS, May 28.—Secretary H. J. W. Danner, Superior Sheriff, has announced that the Governor offers $300 reward for the arrest and conviction of the assassins of the Draper brothers at Soledad. The fact is that they have been caught in the San Joaquin valley.

Three Indians Killed.
WILLOW, A. T., May 28.—Wednesday night the Indians attacked Jones Bros. ranch, near Hookers' Hot Springs. The Indians were killed by the posse and killed three Indians, whom they scalped.

Found Guilty.
NEW YORK, May 28.—The jury in the case of John Most and his associates found all guilty of the charge in the indictment, misdemeanor, and recommended sentence to the mercy of the court. The prisoners will be sentenced Wednesday.

A Plot Discovered.
CHICAGO, May 28.—It is declared that the police have discovered that Anarchists had a plot to blow up a number of buildings and police stations on June 14th.

One of the Soledad Murderers Caught.

HE MAKES A CONFESSION.
A Husband Hues His Wife for Failure to Provide—Abandoning Bankers.

(Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.)

HOLLISTER, May 28.—Deputy Sheriff Zambito, of this county, and Officer Birmingham, of San Juan, brought in one of the supposed perpetrators of the Soledad murder, he was found about thirty miles from the Canal farm in Fresno county. Sheriff Graves of Monterey is here awaiting the prisoner. The prisoner has not been identified, but is supposed to be the one known as Louis.

At first he denied knowing anything about the Soledad affair or the shooting of Sheriff Pommeroy, but he eventually succeeded in obtaining a full confession. He stated that his name was Louis Clark, he came here from the East a short time ago, and met the other man, known as John, in Santa Barbara county and being without money, was induced to join the latter in a scheme of outlawry. He admitted the shooting of the Englishman was done by John, but declared that most of it was done by John, who, he says, admitted to him that he was a notorious desperado and was wanted in numerous different states for crimes of robbery and murder. When captured Clark had no weapon, but an ordinary pocket knife, and stated he led the patrol during the fight at Watsonville. He was brought here today by Officer Birmingham and Zambito and was turned over to Sheriff Graves, of Salinas, who started him on his way to the State Prison, where he is in great fear that he will be mobbed.

Failure to Provide.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Jacob Small has commenced suit in the Superior Court against Mr. Small, his wife, to compel her to provide for him. The complainant alleges that he is 69 years old, in feeble health and unable to support himself and that his wife is worth $70,000 and obtains $475 rent a month from her real estate and mortgages, and has refused him shelter and sustenance, and maltreated and abused him since the 20th of January of this year. He prays that a referee be appointed to investigate the case and determine the amount that should be allowed for his support.

Bankers and Funds Disappear.
OAKLAND, May 28.—The members of the banking firm of Bean & Osborne, of Hayward, a town near here, have disappeared, together with various deposits amounting to some thousands of dollars. Warrants have been issued for their arrest.
